

Cheryl Woolf

I was born in Southend and have lived here all my life, having been educated in Southend primary and secondary schools. Both my children also progressed through the Southend system.

I have always taught in Southend, initially in the Shoebury area, but my Headship has been in Leigh and more lately in Eastwood.