

Jane Theadom

Born and educated in Manchester, Jane went on to read English Language and Medieval Literature at Durham University.

Jane started teaching in primary schools and progressed to deputy and acting headships in London Boroughs and Suffolk. Having had 27 years in the Education Sector, she is a Registered Ofsted Inspector, Education Advisor, Assistant Director for Early Years (Lambeth) and is currently the Head of School Support and Preventative Services which includes school improvement, early years, connexions, integrated locality services and inclusion.

Jane's goals and motivation are to make a positive difference to children's lives; in particular those children who face more challenges as a result of personal circumstances, albeit poverty, disability or not having a loving family environment.

Jane's interests include running, swimming and baking.
